Intro: A E D

A                      E                      D
When I was young I was the nicest guy I knew
A                      E                      D
I thought I was the chosen one
A                      E                      D
But time went by and I found out a thing or two
A                      E                      D
My shine wore off as time wore on
A                      E                      D
I thought that I was living out the perfect life
A                      E                      D
But in the lonely hours when the truth begins to bite
A                      E                      D
I thought about the times when I turned my back & stalled
A                      E                      G
I ain't no nice guy after all

When I was young I was the only game in town
I thought I had it down for sure,
But time went by and I was lost in what I found
The reasons blurred, the way unsure
I thought that I was living life the only way
But as I saw that life was more than day to day
I turned around, I read the writing on the wall

I ain't no nice guy after all
I ain't no nice guy after all
