Verse:

```
Dm          G          C          F
I'm just a dreamer but I'm hanging on

Dm          G          C          F
Though I am nothing big to offer

Dm          G          C          F
I watch the birds, how they dive in then gone
      E          F          Gsus4  G
It's like nothing in this world's ever still

Dm          G          C          F
And I'm just a shadow of your thoughts in me

Dm          G          C          F
But sun is setting, shadows growing

Dm          G          C          F
A long cast figure will turn into night
      E          F          Gsus4  G
It's like nothing in this world ever sleeps
```

Chorus:

C F G C (C/B)
 Oh sometimes the blues is just a passing bird
 Am F Gsus4 G
 And why can't that always be
 C F G C (C/B)
 Tossing aside from your birches crown
 Am F Gsus4 G
 Just enough dark to see
 N.C.
 How you're the light over me

Dm G C F x2

Verse:

And by your side, girl, where the acres grow
 Into the strong and stunning meadow
 A cowboy stumbling in the finest field
 And nothing good out there won't be old

Chorus:

Oh sometimes the blues is just a passing bird
 And why can't that always be
 Tossing aside from your birches crown
 Just enough dark to see
 How you're the light over me

(same as chorus)

C F G C (C/B)
 Am F Gsus4 G

Chorus:

Sometimes the blues is just a passing bird
 And why can't that always be
 Tossing aside from your birches crown
 Just enough dark to see
 How you're the light over me

(same as the intro)

Dm G C F x6
