D G D
Listen to this story, son, there's somethin' you gotta know
G DA
Your spirit got to find for shore are you standin' high or low
DGD
Now, listen with the both ears open and don't ask me why
G D A D
You'll hear why I'm lonely, Just me, myself and sky

A G D
I don't need no carriages, the rainbow is my horse
A G
I don't need to think about is it better or it's worse
AGD
I don't need no empty rooms, the land's my very bed
G DGA
With the sheets of green grass growin' and rock upon my head

DGD A
I got friends, blow ye winds, 'tween the clouds so wild and free
DGD A
I take a breath to spread my wings and fly accross the sea

D G D
So that's the fairytale my boy, sleep tight and try to learn
G D A D
You got world in hand my son, just don't betray your soul
