

(A)            Bb            F
I just wanna feel real love
                                 C (bar 3rd position) feel the home that I live in Bb
I got too much life
                                 F running through my veins
                                 C going to waste

(A)            Bb            F
I just wanna feel real love
                                 C in a life ever after
                                 Bb
There's a hole in my soul
                                 F
you can see it in my face
                                 C .. C/C#
it's a real big place